Old Business:
We are still awaiting the draft MOA. Fred has discussed this with the Army Team and expects to receive it in the next few days.

The ILRA continues to talk with the two distribution companies. Project Jasper is completing its due diligence on the property and their representatives will meet with the ILRA, City and our development partners on February 26, 2013. We have a revised term sheet which has been sent to Norfolk Southern Railroad for review.

New Business:
The Army has advised the ILRA that they will only enter into an ESCA with a remediation contractor that has BRAC experience, including negotiating and implementing an ESCA with a military department. De Novo Group, Clean Harbors Environmental Services, and WRS Compass/ Winters Environmental have some to no BRAC experience which does not include negotiating and implementing an ESCA with a military department. Linda Lord made a motion to not select any of these contractors and to authorize a new RFQ with the BRAC/ESCA experience criteria included, seconded by Latresa Akins. The Board voted to unanimously approve the motion.
